Please remember in your prayers all those members of our parish family who are sick or suffering in any way, all those in hospitals or nursing homes, and all of our shut-ins. We pray for all who have died recently, including Louis Rocco and Kendall Lloyd. Let us not forget the victims of violence at home and abroad. We remember the men and women serving in the armed forces as we continually pray for peace.

Family Perspective
By Bud Ozar

In today's gospel Jesus told his disciples "I have much more to tell you, but you cannot hear it now." Jesus has the same problem with us as we do with our children. Our advice is not always welcome. Timing was a challenge for Jesus as it is for us as parents.

Resolving an argument: Strategy #5: CREATE A NEW SOLUTION: If compromise or co-existing won't work, try brainstorming new win/win solutions. It may take some time and creativity but consider the alternative-living in disharmony with each other.

Parenting Pointers

Karen Vogt, www.SusanVogt.net
June is a time of graduations and dandelions: weddings and lightning bugs; vacations and summer jobs. Whether you have babies or teenagers, take a moment today to notice something small, but precious, about your child. Sit in wonderment for a moment about the mystery of human life.

"Recession Resilience"

The economic downturn has affected everyone in ways large and small. Some members of our community are facing serious challenges, loss of jobs and homes. To explore how we can help ourselves and each other, several area congregations are co-sponsoring a program on "Recession Resilience" on Thursday, June 11, 7-9 p.m. at the United Methodist Church on Fifth Avenue and Henning Road.

This program will include an overview of the current economic situation, an examination of available and needed resources in the local area for individuals facing job loss or adversely affected by the economic downturn, and strategies for building one's personal resilience in these challenging times. Among the presenters will be Temple member and Skidmore economics professor Roy Rotheim. Child care will be provided, as well as refreshments from Temple Sinai's Slice of Heaven Bakery.
