Please remember in your prayers all those members of our parish family who are sick or suffering in any way, all those in hospitals or nursing homes, and all of our shut-ins. We pray for all who have died recently, including Samuel Neilsen, and Rita Pitman, mother of Robert Pitman. Let us not forget the victims of violence at home and abroad. We remember the men and women serving in the armed forces as we continually pray for peace.

Family Perspective
By Bud Ozar

In today's gospel Jesus reminds us it is not WHAT we do but WHY we do it which gives religious significance to our actions. Family life is full of rituals and routines. When they are done "in the Lord" with love, they are holy.

Marriage Moments

Karen Vogt, www.SusanVogt.net

Aug. 31: "Never go to bed angry" is a maxim of many successfully married couples. But what if an argument drags on and you're only getting less agreeable with each other. It's OK to call a time out, set a time to reconnect the next day when you're fresher and have had time to cool off.

Parenting Pointers

Karen Vogt, www.SusanVogt.net

Does your child have any peace and quiet? This is especially important for teens that often fill spare moments with things next to their ear - iPods, cell phones, video games, and even nagging parents. If noise is always in their ears, it doesn't leave much room for pensive thinking. You can't make your child think, but you can make space for it by having common sense rules about overuse of media.

Faith Alive!

To stay informed about our Catholic faith and news of our Diocese, read The Evangelist, our Albany Diocesan newspaper. The Evangelist offers extensive, in depth coverage. The cost is only 30 cents a week, less than a first-class postage stamp.
